

ECO collection

Design by Carlos Tiscar

The complex skeleton-like structure is the main feature of this model. It marks the personality of the chair and defines it as an almost sculptural object that, despite its bareness, is warm and welcoming due to its shape and the natural materials used in its construction.

The structure, without edges, transmits so much strength and stability that it seems to rise from the ground instead of resting on it.

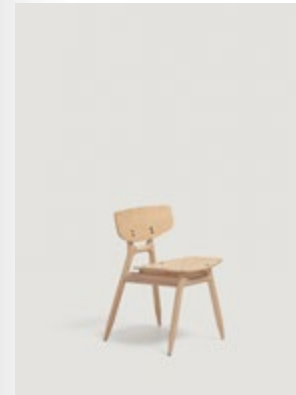

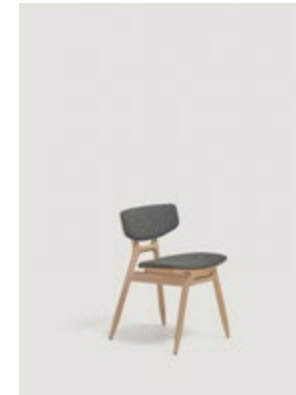

ECO collection

Chair

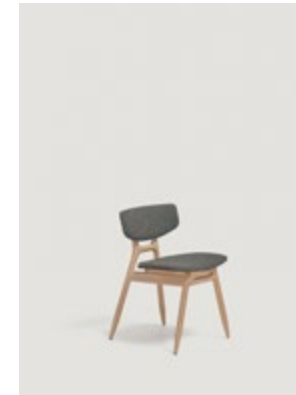

500M

Chair with beech or oak wood base, restback and seat

500P

Semi upholstered chair with beech or oak wood base, restback and seat

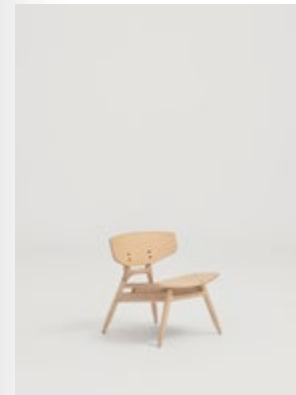

500T

Upholstered chair with beech or oak wood base

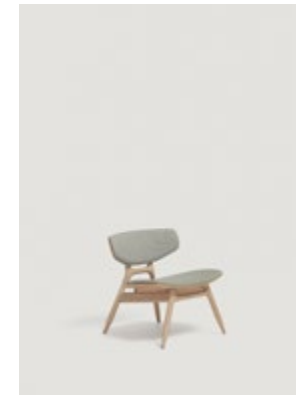

o rable

Lounge

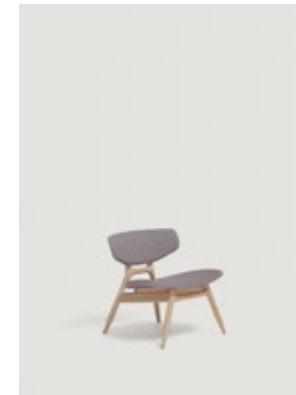

501M

Lounge chair with beech or oak wood base, restback and sea

501P

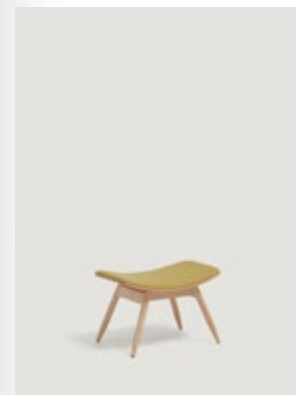

Semi upholstered lounge chair with beech or oak wood base, restback and seat

501T

Upholstered lounge chair with beech or oak wood base

Restfoot

501REP

Semi upholstered restfoot with beech or oak wood base, restback and seat