Design by Fran Silvestre

EN Collection of chairs, armchairs, barstools and armchairs with straight lines of great visual lightness. Formed by the union of two elements, metal and wood, which together provide warmth and ergonomics. Designed by the architect Fran Silvestre, conceived as a sculptural piece for common spaces, hotels, restaurants, homes.

The steel tube structure is available in different colors, as well as the oak shell or, upholstered version for greater comfort.

Due to the characteristics of the metal and wood that compose it, they can be recycled, contributing to the circular economy.
